They Expect Bloodshed in Manifeba.

WINNIPED, Mass., NOV. 2.—It is evident there will be bloodshed before the present railway war is settled. The situation looks very serious and a collision may occur at any time. The Government collision may occur at any time. The Government is bound to effect a crossing over the Canadian Pacine road, and for this purpose has been quietly massing its forces. Large numbers of men nave been brought in from Dakota and Mingesota, and are now on the scene, with a local force of track layers and special police. The Government programme last night did not involve making a crossing. It is waiting for certain events, and when all plans are matured it will act. to test the question as to whether a man can be ejected from a church on account of the costume he wears, if he conduct himself in a quiet and orderly manner.

The complainant is Lewis D. Greenslade, otherwise known as "Lewis the Light," and the de-fendants are several of the trustees of the Brookyn Tabernacle, which is presided over by the Rev.

Greenslade says that on Sept. 30 he attended the Tabernacie, "for the purpose of receiving religious instruction and listening to the sermon and observing the ceremonies."

He was shown to a seat, which he occupied and where he conducted himself in a quiet and orderly manner. U. S. District - Attorney Walker

A Fac Simile of the Letter Received in New York To-Day.

IT WILL APPEAR IN OUR NEXT EDITION. United States District-Attorney Walker this morning said to a representative of THE EVENING WORLD that if Treasurer Dudley, of the Republican National Committee, wrote the new famous letter giving instruction regarding the wholesale purchase of votes in Indiana, he has mitted.

Of course, if Dudley is indicted by the United States Grand Jury in Indians, he can be arrested in New York.

Not only is there a possibility of criminal proses cution of Col. Dudley in the United States Court but it is considered a serious question if he has not violated one of the statutes of this State—that under which Herr Most was convicted—by his alleged inflammatory utterances regarding figuting to secure the election.

Col. rellows has expressed himself of this colution and says that he will attempt to satisfy himself of the genuineness of the letter, when he may set the criminal machinery of the county working against the redoubtable ex-Pension commissioner.

A fac simile of the remarkable document which fell into the hands of Chairman Jewett, of the Indiana Democratic State Committee, was received at Democratic State Committee, was received at Democratic State Committee, was remired the Democratic Cathpaign managers in their belief in its genuineness.

It is remarkable that Col. Dudley in his blundering attempt to deny the authorship of the letter as Irst published should have remembered that he was misquoted in one particular and material pirrate.

He said that in the letter which he wrote and
